1. Why do we want people to know us? In what ways do we try to share ourselves with other people?
2. Where does the desire to be "known" come from? What is the point of it?
3. Why is it significant that God desires to be known? What would our relationship with God be like if he didn't reveal himself to us?
4. What was Moses's reaction when God revealed himself to him through the burning bush? Why does it matter that God reveals his name, "I AM"?
5. What are some ways that God reveals himself to you in your everyday life?
6. How can you invite God to reveal himself to you more?
